In order to help us support you more fully, and to help keep our congregation informed, praying and rejoicing with you. we urge you to be prepared and willing to :

- Talk about the mission during a worship service as you prepare for your project.
- Be at a worship service just prior to leaving so the congregation can pray specifically for you.
- Keep in touch with the congregation through email updates, if possible, during the trip.
- On return, report on the mission, including photos and videos where possible, on a Sunday morning.
